

FREE DRIVING LESSON

worth up to £25 for every reader

One in five drivers will be involved in a road traffic accident of some kind within their first year of driving and to help impact the horrifying accident rate of newly qualified drivers, the Evening News has teamed up with a range of fully qualified Approved Driving Instructors and driving schools, to offer you a FREE driving lesson – worth up to £25.

You can take your free lesson any time between now and the end of June 2007 - so you can reply to this offer even if it's a few months until your 17th birthday.

To take advantage of this great offer, don't delay – simply complete the coupon and collect two tokens (see the How to Apply section) and return them to the address shown as soon as possible and a driving instructor will get in touch with you shortly to arrange your free one-hour driving lesson. There's no catch – it's completely free.

To qualify for this offer you must hold a provisional driving licence or have one by June 30 2007. Offer applies UK mainland only, subject to instructor availability. All normal Archant rules apply.

HOW TO APPLY

Complete the coupon below in full in BLOCK CAPITALS, collect the 2 tokens printed in the Evening News on Wednesday March 7 and Thursday March 8, 2007 and send them as soon as possible to: FREE Driving Lesson Offer, PO Box 142, Horsham, RH13 5FJ. The person who requires the lesson should complete the coupon.

FREE DRIVING LESSON APPLICATION FORM

Please allocate me a free one-hour driving lesson with a driving instructor (one application per person)

Full Name: _____

Address: _____

Postcode: _____

Telephone (essential so that we can contact you) _____

If lesson required ASAP tick box  Do you have any disabilities that affect your driving? Yes/No

If you wish to delay your lesson (because you do not hold a Provisional Licence or are not yet 17), please indicate here the exact date from when you can take your free lesson: __/__/__ Note: Lesson must be taken before 30 June 2007.